

Mom-in-Charge (MIC): one person needed to be the designated adult in charge of operations for the day. This can be divided into four-hour increments or worked as a complete eight-hour shift. The MIC is responsible for overseeing study hall, contacting a board member with a discipline issue, making sure all lunch workers and cleaning workers have arrived, collecting attendance forms, selling snacks, and general oversight. A family must have attended Master's Monday for one year before they are eligible to sign up for MIC. This is a four-hour position (morning or afternoon) or an eight-hour position (all day).